

Writer for Hire Ltd.

For all your writing needs

“In my heart of hearts,
I am a writer.”

Raised in Ontario by respectable, hard-working parents, Peg learned the basic values of treating others well and giving her best effort in everything she does.

Westar Mining, a private sector employer, recognized her writing ability, and assigned a mentor to teach her about corporate communications. Ever since, Peg has made her living as a writer.

She has always been an entrepreneur, starting as a kid selling ‘turkeys’ carved out of the solid blocks of snow that are created by Northern Ontario winds.

Even while employed, she has always run her own business, and submersed herself into the film industry for a time in Victoria, BC. She not only wrote scripts, but produced short films as well.

In Vancouver, she wrote screenplays with a writing partner, and although never produced, it was fabulous training, and she gained representation with the Gerald K. Smith Agency in L.A. Peg is also a member of the Writers Guild of Canada.

Peg has served in Public Service while in BC, learning more about web writing and honing her friendly, open style. From there she worked for fourteen months with EvesTribe.com until their launch December 1, 2011.

This year, she moved to Okotoks, AB to be nearer her children and grandchildren in the Calgary area. She was delighted to find that so many businesses needed writing assistance, and Writer for Hire was born. She has not looked back.

Working with Peg on a project is the best way to get to know her. Call anytime.
